Army Commendation Medal

Jack A. Cobb served his country with many commendations during and after World War II. His knowledge and education were instrumental in introducing the first FFA program in Quinlan schools in 1949. Mr. Cobb dedicated his life to the youth of QISD for thirty-three years. Mr. Cobb's faithful service to school and community demonstrated excellence. He served in many leadership roles in the city of Quinlan, in his church and in Hunt County. The Jack Cobb Vocational wing of W.H. Ford High School was named in his honor. His spirit in the FFA department will live forever.
